Good afternoon,

As you are no doubt aware, the Emissions Reduction Assurance Committee has recently completed its periodic review of the landfill gas method.

Having completed the periodic review, the Department is consulting on a variation of the landfill gas method to implement the review findings and the findings of the earlier crediting period extension review of the method.

Following requests from participants during Monday's technical working group meeting, the consultation period has been extended until 26 April 2019.

Kind regards,

Albert Dessi
